

Viasat Managed Website Application Privacy Notice

The following “Privacy Notice” explains Viasat, Inc.’s (“Viasat” “we” “our” “us”) data practices in connection with Viasat’s Managed Website application, which provides website services for use with Viasat Internet or other Viasat services (the “Application”). This Privacy Notice only applies to our data practices with respect to the Application and not to any of our other products or services, or when you contact us by mail or phone for customer service or otherwise. For our general subscriber privacy policies and for our other products and services click here. Each of our products and services have their own privacy notices or policies.

What Information Do We Collect?

We collect data associated with the operation of the Application, such as, but not limited to, all content you post on the Application, your general Application usage habits, such as, screens you visit within the Application and the duration you spend on a screen within the Application, the website used to access the Application, your device type, operating systems and browser information and your contact information (name, e-mail address, and/or phone number) if you provide such information in connection with your use of the Application.

We may receive information that personally identifies you (“Personally Identifiable Information” or “PII”), which will only be used in connection with your use of the Application.

How Do We Use Your Information?

Viasat, and Viasat’s agents, use your Application data to operate the Application, improve the Application, and to contact you to discuss Viasat’s services using the contact information (email or phone number) you provide.

We may also use your Application data to comply with the law, law enforcement or other legal process, and in response to a government request, or if we believe your actions are inconsistent with our terms of use, user agreements, applicable terms or policies, or to protect the rights, property, life, health, security and safety of Viasat, the Application or its users, or any third party.

How Do We Share Your Information?

We may share your Application data as follows:

- Our agents, vendors, consultants, and other service providers (collectively “Service Providers”) may receive, or be given access to your Application data in connection with their work on our behalf, provided however, we do not authorize our Service Providers to use your Application data that is PII, or is tied to your Application or device, for purposes other than performing services for us or for you;

- To comply with the law, law enforcement or other legal process, and in response to a government request; and
- If we believe your actions are inconsistent with our terms of use, user agreements, applicable terms or policies, or to protect the rights, property, life, health, security and safety of Viasat, the Application or its users, or any third party.

In addition, we may share your Application data with our related companies for their own business purposes not inconsistent with this Privacy Notice and in connection with or during negotiations of any proposed or actual merger, purchase, sale, joint venture, or any other type of acquisition or business combination of all or any portion of Viasat's assets, or transfer of all or a portion of Viasat's business to another company.

Third Party Services You Visit Or That Are Associated With The Application.

The Application may include hyperlinks to, or include on or in connection with, the Application, websites, locations, platforms, technology, applications or services operated by third parties ("Third-Party Service(s)"). Viasat is not responsible for and makes no representations regarding the policies or business practices of any third parties, including, without limitation, Third-Party Services associated with the Application or that you visit using the Application, and encourages you to familiarize yourself with and consult their privacy policies and terms of use.

Data Security.

While we seek to ensure the integrity and security of our Application and systems, we cannot guarantee the security of the information, and we encourage you to take precautions to protect your personal data.

You are responsible for maintaining the strict confidentiality of the following, which may or may not be applicable to you depending on how you use the Application: (a) your account password, (b) any site login or user identification information, and (c) Viasat device credentials. You shall be responsible for any access or use of the Application by you or any person or entity using your password, login or user identification, whether or not such access or use has been authorized by or on behalf of you.

You choose which content to post on the Application and how to engage with the Application. If you choose to provide access to any of your account data to third parties, Viasat cannot be held responsible for any release of account or personal data that occurs as a result of the access that you provided to others.

US Based Service.

Viasat is based in the U.S. and the information we and our Service Providers collect is governed by U.S. law. If you are accessing the Application from outside of the U.S., please be aware that information collected through the Application may be transferred to, processed, stored, and used in the U.S. Data protection laws in the U.S. may be different from those of your country of residence. Your use of the Application or provision of any information therefore constitutes your consent to the transfer to and from, processing, usage, sharing, and storage of your information, including PII (if applicable), in the U.S. as set forth in this Privacy Notice.

Special Information for California Residents.

California residents may request a list of all third parties to which we have disclosed certain information about you for the third party's direct marketing purposes. This Application does not currently disclose any information to third parties for their direct marketing purposes.

Changes to the Privacy Notice.

We reserve the right to change this Privacy Notice prospectively effective upon the posting of the revised Privacy Notice at www.exede.com/legal, or a successor website, and your use of our Application indicates your consent to the privacy notice posted at the time of use. However, we will not use your previously collected Application data, to the extent it is not collected under the new privacy notice, in a manner materially different than represented at the time it was collected without your consent. To the extent any provision of this Privacy Notice is found by a competent tribunal to be invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be severed to the extent necessary for the remainder to be valid and enforceable.

Comment [EB1]: Please ask Nathan Segó to host this policy at Viasat.com/legal.
